BUILDING ORDINANCE HAS BEEN PREPARED

Capt. J. W. Bennett and City Attorney West have prepared an Ordinance Covering All Requirements for An Insurance and Safety Standoff for All New Buildings To Be Erected.

BRANSON AND GUN GOING TO CHICAGO

HUN, ISADORE STRAUSS TO GO TO CHICAGO

MISSIONARY WORK FOR MARRIAGE

Last Night White Going To the Fire at Swift's Building
The Chief Ran Into Water Fountain on Broad Street
And Was Thrown From Roof of His Buggy And Dragged A Distance of Forty Feet.

MRS. B. B. MOON BADLY INJURED

AGED LADY ON BAXTER STREET FELL AND WAS CRIPPLED PERMANENTLY

BISHOP W. E. HUGHES

IN LEEVILLE, LOUISIANA

CHIEF GEO. W. M'DORMAN

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH

FIRE...FIRE...FIRE

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

“An ordinance providing for the protection and safety of the city of Athens, for the decency of streets and grounds, and for the proper building of buildings. The ordinance shall also be for the general welfare of the city itself.”

The ordinance provides for the protection and safety of the city of Athens, for the decency of streets and grounds, and for the proper building of buildings. It shall also be for the general welfare of the city itself.

The ordinance provides for the protection and safety of the city of Athens, for the decency of streets and grounds, and for the proper building of buildings. It shall also be for the general welfare of the city itself.

The ordinance provides for the protection and safety of the city of Athens, for the decency of streets and grounds, and for the proper building of buildings. It shall also be for the general welfare of the city itself.